

Attorney (Senior Associate/Associate) in White-Collar Crime Law (m/f/d)

Do you want to bring your passion for white-collar criminal law to the major, defining cases of our time?

At the same time, do you appreciate the advantages and opportunities of a smaller, more flexible unit? Then this might be a match. stetter Rechtsanwälte stands for excellence in white-collar criminal law. Through the successful handling of demanding national and international mandates, we have earned an excellent reputation. This is precisely why cases such as Wirecard, Cum-Ex, and the Diesel scandal are part of our daily work.

We offer you the opportunity to work directly on cases that are already making history today. You will be part of a dedicated team that provides the ideal setting for professional and personal growth in an appreciative environment.

One thing is particularly important to us:

A genuine interest in white-collar criminal law. This should be reflected in your career to date.

Beyond that, you score with:

- Excellent results in the German state law examinations („vollbefriedigend“)
- Relevant seminars or further training in criminal law
- A strong understanding of economic contexts
- Very good English skills
- An interest in digital topics
- High motivation and commitment to our clients and our team

Why stetter Rechtsanwälte?

- First-class mandates: Demanding work, including high-profile mandates such as Wirecard, Cum-Ex, or the Diesel scandal
- Direct client contact: Depending on your professional experience, you manage mandates as independently as possible
- Strong career prospects: Personal and professional development opportunities — training at the highest professional level is a top priority at stetter Rechtsanwälte
- Individual freedom: A balanced work-life approach, mobile working, flexible working models
- A positive working environment: A motivated team, communication at eye level, and a modern office in the heart of Munich

Do you have a passion for white-collar criminal law and want to sharpen your personal profile and expand your expertise in one of the top boutiques? Then we look forward to receiving your complete application with a meaningful cover letter and CV.

Please send it to info@stetterlegal.com.

